PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Business Operations & Development

Family Law Decisions

- Supported the running and growth of a client-facing professional services business, combining client communication, commercial administration and operational coordination.
- Managed prospective client enquiries from initial contact through to conversion, identifying client needs, explaining services and supporting the transition into paid engagements.
- Managed relationships with prospective and existing clients across telephone, email and digital channels, supporting conversion, retention and ongoing service delivery.
- Coordinated onboarding, appointments and allocation of work to appropriate team members, including McKenzie Friends and paralegals.
- Contributed to business development and marketing activity, including online presence, lead generation and improvements to the customer acquisition process.
- Improved internal workflows around enquiries, client information, follow-up actions, invoicing support and payment tracking to keep operations more organised.

Store Assistant

ALDI

- Communicated confidently with customers in a high-volume commercial setting, resolving queries and practical issues with professionalism.
- Maintained commercial standards across stock, presentation and store routines while working at pace and under pressure.
- Supported team performance by staying organised, adapting quickly and taking ownership during busy trading periods.

Earlier Experience
