PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Commercially minded professional with experience across business operations, client services, customer service and sales-focused environments. Has supported the running of a client-facing professional services business, handling enquiries, onboarding clients, coordinating work and helping improve internal processes. Confident building relationships by phone, email and in person, with strong commercial awareness and the ability to work independently, take ownership and solve problems. Degree-educated and now targeting roles across sales, marketing, business development, account management, customer success and operations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Business Operations & Client Services

Family Law Decisions

Current / Recent

- Supported the day-to-day running and growth of a client-facing professional services business, balancing client communication, administration and operational priorities.
- Handled incoming enquiries from prospective clients, clarified requirements and helped move suitable enquiries towards paid services through clear, confident communication.
- Maintained contact with prospective and existing clients by telephone, email and digital channels, helping keep the client journey organised and professional.
- Supported onboarding, appointment coordination and allocation of work to appropriate team members, including McKenzie Friends and paralegals.
- Contributed to business development and customer acquisition activity, including online presence, lead generation and practical improvements to the sales process.
- Helped improve internal workflows, systems and service processes so enquiries, client information and follow-up actions were handled more efficiently.
- Worked closely with management on growth ideas, service improvements, invoicing support, payment tracking and wider commercial administration.

Store Assistant

ALDI

Recent Retail Experience

- Worked in a fast-paced commercial environment, supporting store standards, stock routines, customer service and payment handling.
- Met performance expectations across varied shifts while staying organised, reliable and calm under pressure.
- Dealt confidently with customer queries and practical problems, contributing to an efficient team environment.

Additional Customer-Facing Experience

Tesco | Iceland | Subway | Camp Walden, New York

Previous Roles

- Built broad customer service, sales support and teamwork experience across supermarket, food service and international camp environments.
- Developed confidence working under pressure, communicating with different customer groups, handling responsibility and maintaining service standards in busy settings.
